

Directions:

1. Answer each question to the best of your ability without help.
2. Check your answer against your notes, the textbook, and your peers' answers.
3. Revise your answer.

Highlighted questions are geared for AP students taking AP English Language & Composition.

[Ono.] Quiz #1: Introductory Materials

- What does a semicolon indicate?
- What is proxy feedback, and how does it factor into GARAS work?
- Why should all GARAS notes, questions, and responses be handwritten?
- What is a conjunction, and what does it indicate?

[Ono.] Quiz #2: Lessons 1-2

- In rhetorical terms, what is juxtaposition?
- What distinguishes a phrase from a clause?
- What is the rhetorical effect of a sentence fragment?
- What is antimetabole, and what is its effect?

[Ono.] Quiz #3: Lessons 3-4

- What is the difference between the passive and active voice?
- How could you repair a comma splice?
- What should you know about starting a sentence with a coordinating conjunction?
- What is the difference in effect between polysyndeton and asyndeton?

[Ono.] Quiz #4: Lessons 5-7

- What is negative rhetorical impact of overusing modifiers?
- What is the standard sentence pattern in written English?
- What is the rhetorical impact of a cumulative sentence?
- What is an independent clause?

[Ono.] Quiz: Overall

- What new rhetorical or stylistic technique did you learn from the assigned lessons?